With Character!
 Here all the doors can be opened!

With a smile from the trap of the destiny

It is a fact that the caste, in which your child was born will definitely influence his future, more than his talent, his abilities, his knowledge etc.!

However, there is a brilliant solution!

You will never have this problem: We will show you the way, with character animated stories, to become a genius!

Genius become

Here and now the future of your child begins: Every day watch and tell just one animated story with character!

And there is something else: There is a statement, in which we truly believe:

"Germany will become an engine for the whole world in character-building!"

This is a challenge for us, to realize this prediction! Here is our method:

What the world teachers say:
 worldly education can help you, in a very tedious way, to provide yourself with bread and butter,
 However, modern worldly education is not responsible for the fact that the morale in society has collapsed.

Remember:
 Character-building through our program
SaiNacapro
 Leads you to genius!
 You will easily open all the doors in life!

The aim of the program is to build character (a basis of our life) through animation; it will help everyone to recognize one's genius and to realize it in life.

The program is structured around short stories from religions and wisdom teachings from all over the world, which will be presented in the form of animations (cartoons)

In sport, as well as in our daily life, we very often face stressful situations: Our behaviour in these situations will be unconsciously guided by what is already stored in the memory, most often unknown pictures (our life experiences)!

This means, everything that we saw and experienced in our life before, in childhood, is stored in our memory (good or bad pictures) and they influence our future behavior. The aim of the program is to store in the memory of a child as many good pictures as possible to help him (her) unconsciously behave in the best possible way in a stressful situation.

Stories with VIRTUES, as a value, which support the character training of the viewer, in the same way that all religions teach through stories, tales, parables, koans, and experiences of people of all backgrounds and races, interspersed with methods for easy learning through visualizing the inner train of thoughts.

In order to deepen the understanding, the main idea will be once again repeated by way of a musical video or short refrain (chorus).

Through daily stories over a 10-year long program, a total of 3650 codes of conducts are given, where those interested can recognize their true inner potential, which will enable them to have successful, happy social behaviors, at a high standard of living, for the benefit of society.

If one has good pictures stored in one's memory, one will have a better character, which means he/she will be liked by society and be successful in it.
